Viva Goa
GOA'S FIRST & ONLY LIFESTYLE MAGAZINE
February Issue on Stands

COVER STORY
Soul searching in Goa
Zambhala, India's first Yoga, Music and Life Spirit festival brought teachers and trainers from around the world to Morjim. VIVA GOA takes a look at what the event had to offer.

FEATURE & ARTICLES
- Adv. ANS Nadkarni explains the science of astrology and warns us to be wary of fraud astrologers.
- Award winning author, Padmashri Maria Aurora Couto talks about her latest book 'Filomena's Journey', her love for Goa and her worries about the State's future.
- Chinnamay Borkar shares the experiences of Borkar Group of Companies from a tiny kiosk into a business house.
- Ramnath Pai Raikar speaks with spiritual guru Shubha Vilas on his recent interpretation of two popular Indian epics, the Ramayana and the Mahabharatha.
- Dr. Rufino Monteiro gives a heads up on health problems during winter and tips to enjoy the weather without falling sick.
- Overlooking lucrative opportunities, the multi-talented artist Shridhar Kamat Bambolkar has been using his inborn gifts to serve Goa's art and culture.
- Amidst the hustle bustle of Calangute, The Novotel Goa Shrem Resort is a perfect place to unwind and indulge in luxury.
- Rajendra Talak and Oscar winning sound editor Resul Pookutty team up for the making of the Konkani & Marathi movie 'A Rainy Day'.
- Fashion Designer Verma D'Mello's fashion show was the highlight of the Goa Heritage Festival where her creations showcased a fusion of traditional designs with modern flair.

GIVEAWAY
The premiere show of the film 'A Rainy Day'
Launch of Caculo's maiden Marathi film production, 'Guru Poomna'
The farewell party for Grand Hyatt Goa's GM, Stefan Radstrom
The opening of the new Cardiac Care Facility at the Vintage Hospital

 Spotlight
The youngest champion across four ladies table tennis categories in Goa, Tanvi Kirtani gets candid about her journey in sports.

Available at all major Bookstalls & Supermarkets
www.vivagoamagazine.com